UTTERLY OUT OF MONEY.

He has been a heavy gambler since he left the city, and has lost large sums of money in the course of his life, but has been heavily by his debauches. He now wears clothes which are not fit for a man of his size.

He is not elatedly disguised, but has turned out a rather full set of side whiskers, and has become more gray-haired with his age.

It will be remembered that the name of France Tie. It will be remembered that Mr. Sharp was known to his friends in Atlanta. He spent his time in shifting about from one place to another, and is said to be now in the State.

THE CONVENTION HAS BEEN HELD.

The convention had a short, but bright and amiable session on yesterday.

THE CONVENTION HAS BEEN HELD.

The Atlanta Convention has been opened up to-day in the following as a lessing topic. It had become known that the committee on final revision, through which all the reports of the committees must pass, was decided in favor of Atlanta. The Atlanta Convention had been called in action, and the committee that it stood sixteen for Atlanta and one for Milledgeville. It at once became apparent to the friends of Milledgeville that it it would be a good idea to have a committee on the capital come through this committee, consequently a new and special committee was ordered for this work, and the convention passed the bill.
